

PRESS RELEASE

December 13, 2018
For immediate release

Contact: Annette Bernhardt, Marketing Coordinator

631.462.5400 x223

John C. Armentano Joins Art League of Long Island Board of Directors

The Art League of Long Island is pleased to announce John C. Armentano has joined the Art League of Long Island's Board of Directors.

John C. Armentano, a St. James, NY, resident, is an attorney with Farrell Fritz, who focuses his practice on land use and municipal law and represents clients in both the trial and appellate level in connection with litigation matters involving towns and villages. Mr. Armentano is a contributor to Farrell Fritz' Long Island Land Use & Zoning blog. He received his J.D. from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center, his M.S. from Long Island University and his B.A. from College of the Holy Cross.

He is a Past Member of the Advisory Board, Board of Directors of the Nassau Academy of Law, and currently serves on the Advisory Board of the Touro Law Center's Land Use & Sustainable Development Law Institute.

John C. Armentano, photo by

The Art League of Long Island, located in Dix Hills, is a not-for-profit visual arts organization that offers classes and workshops for children and adults, from beginner to advanced levels. Their art gallery hosts a dozen exhibits per year, featuring contemporary works by many local artists. For information about classes, exhibits, and events call (631) 462-5400 or visit www.artleagueli.org.

###