Overview

Art League of Long Island invites artists to submit artwork for our exhibition fundraiser, Love, Picasso, a group exhibition that explores contemporary interpretations of Pablo Picasso's artistic legacy. Rather than reproductions or stylistic copies, this exhibition invites artists to respond to Picasso's work as a point of departure—engaging with his ideas, methods, innovations, contradictions, and cultural impact through their own distinct practices. Look through his catalogue of works, and interpret them with your own lived experiences, and expand upon, reinterpret, and challenge his influence.

All mediums are welcome, except video

Exhibition Juror

Erica Berkowitz is the co-owner of the Haven Gallery in Northport, NY. Erica Berkowitz received her Bachelor's Degree in Art History from Stony Brook University and her Master's Degree in Contemporary Art from Sotheby's Institute of Art. She has worked locally on Long Island at the Nassau County Museum of Art and the Islip Art Museum and in Manhattan at established galleries in Chelsea, 5th ave, Midtown and Soho. She has been working in the art world for about twenty years and is also a self-published author. Along with her husband, she has been collecting art for twenty years. The Art League of Long Island is honored to have Erica Berkowitz serve as judge for the Love, Picasso exhibition.

Art League of Long Island

Founded in 1955 by a small group of creative visionaries, the Art League is dedicated to broad-based visual arts education, providing a forum and showcase for artists of all ages and abilities. As the largest art center of its kind on Long Island, the Art League is noted for the quality of its offerings and its distinguished artists. Its state-of-the-art facility, containing the impressive atrium Jeanie Tengelsen Gallery and nine spacious studios, is centrally located off Exit 42N of Northern State Parkway.
